1. He who would val-i-ant be 'gainst all dis- as-ter,
 let him in cons-tan-cy fol-low the Mas-ter.

There's no dis-cou-rage-ment shall make him once re-lent.

His first a-vowed in-tent, to be a pil-grim.

2. Who so beset him round
 With dismal stories,
 Do but themselves confound:
 His strength the more is.
 No foes shall stay his might,
 Though he with giants fight,
 He will make good his right
 To be a pilgrim.

3. Since, Lord, Thou dost defend
 Us with Thy Spirit,
 We know we at the end
 Shall life inherit.
 Then fancies flee away!
 I'll fear not what men say,
 I'll labour night and day
 To be a pilgrim.
